

Consent to Communications Disclosure:

If you opt-in, you agree the credit union may text, call, or email you at the address or number you provide regarding accounts, products, and services you have or that we may offer. Calls and texts may include, but are not limited to, prerecorded or voice mail message calls, text messages, and calls made by an automatic telephone dialing system from us and our affiliates and agents. This consent is not required in order to receive accounts, products, or services.

How to Opt-Out: To stop receiving text messages from Fibre Federal Credit Union, text STOP to any text sent by the credit union. You may also call, email, or write to us any time to opt out of these calls, emails, or texts.

You are responsible for any fees imposed by your wireless service provider.
